THE PRESIDENT'S DAUGHTER WEDS AT NOON TODAY

Most Brilliant Nuptials in the History of Nation's Capital.

Distinguished Personages From All Nations Witness the Roosevelt-Longworth Ceremony.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Miss Alice Roosevelt, elder daughter of the president of the United States, was married to Representative Nicholas Longworth, of Ohio, at noon today in the East Room of the White House.

Miss Alice fell heir to her father's luck in the weather furnished for the wedding, as the extreme bitterness of the temperature which had frozen Washington solid the last few days, gave way to the balminess of spring over night, and the sun rose over the white dome of the capitol, and came down from a sky of azure blue.

The most distinguished statesmen of the land, lights of literature, lions of society, and captains of industry—men and women from every walk of life from almost every clime and corner of the globe—came to pay homage to the happy couple and to swell the throng at the most brilliant wedding the capital has ever seen.

Thirty-seven foreign ambassadors and ministers were in attendance, to extend the felicitations of their sovereigns and peoples. Cabinet officers, senators, the bridegroom's colleagues in the house, and the intimate personal friends of the Roosevelt and Longworth families in Washington, New York and Cincinnati were included among the fortunate thousand invited to witness the marriage. It was an assemblage of the elite in public and social life. Rivaling the splendid floral decorations of the famous state apartment were the gold-encrusted costumes and flashing orders of the diplomatic corps, to say nothing of the vari-colored toilets of the women guests. The White House never looked more beautiful than it did today in its gala dress of bloom and verdure. For more than a week florists and decorators had been moving tropical plants into place and weaving garlands for the great event. The result as revealed when the doors were opened this morning amply repaid all the care and labor bestowed on the task. The color scheme was white and green, ferns and lilies predominating.

The Ceremony.

The Right Reverend Henry Yates Satterlee, bishop of the diocese of Washington, performed the nuptial rites, using the stately ceremonial of the Protestant Episcopal church. President Roosevelt led his daughter to the altar and gave her to the young statesman from Ohio. Miss Alice had no bridesmaids, for from her host of girl friends she could scarcely have selected any without hurting the feelings of the others. The bridegroom was attended by Thomas Nelson Perkins, of Boston, a member of the corporation of Harvard University. Nearly all of the ushers were Harvard men.

A few moments before the stroke of twelve Miss Roosevelt left her dainty boudoir on the second floor of the White House, where she had been assisted in donning her wedding garments by her cousins, the Misses Robinson. With her father she descended by the elevator at the west end of the mansion between the state dining-room and the breakfast room, while the Marine band, of sixty pieces, stationed in the marble lobby, struck up the bridal chorus from "Tannhauser." Miss Roosevelt's right hand rested on her father's arm, and in her left she carried a gorgeous bouquet of white orchids and lilies. Her long bridal veil of the bluest texture was fastened at the head with a spray of orange blossoms. The President wore the conventional frock coat with silver trousers, but the unconventional "down" collar, which he refused to discard in favor of the regulation "stand-up" style, even for this great event.

At the elevator door they were met by the ushers, who led the march down the long corridor to the East Room, where the guests had already assembled. The ceremony was performed on a low platform before the

FRIENDLY FIGHT FOR A POSTOFFICE

Applicants From Mt. Sterling
Go to Washington Together.

Application Made to Transfer a Marion, Ky., Man to Yuma, Arizona.

OTHER WASHINGTON NOTES

Washington, D. C., Feb. 17.—Postmaster B. W. Hall and John C. Wood, of Mt. Sterling, both applicants for the office in which the commission expires March 12, arrived on the same train. Mr. Wood, who says he has the endorsement of Richard P. Ernst, went with Mr. Ernst and State Central Committeeman R. H. Winn to call upon Commissioner Yerkes, James O'Connell, formerly sergeant-at-arms of the Kentucky court of appeals, is also an applicant.

Representative James and former Senator Deboe made application to Attorney General Moody for the transfer of Major Reed from Ft. Leavenworth to Yuma, Arizona. Reed, who was from Marion, married an Indian girl in Indian Territory. He was recently convicted of killing his father-in-law. The prisoner has incipient tuberculosis and for this reason the transfer is requested. Senator Deboe and Mr. James will call upon the president Monday to ask for a pardon for Reed, who it is claimed killed the Indian in self-defense.

Representatives Stanley, James, Trimble, Hopkins, Richardson and Smith were before the public buildings committee to be heard on bills they have offered for federal buildings and improvements in their respective districts.

Congressman Ollie James has announced that he is going to apply for permission to sleep in jail. His reason was that South Trimble has advertised to recover a $200 watch chain, "pinched" from him yesterday. Mr. James says that when Washington crooks are quick enough to gather jewelry from Mr. Trimble's bosom it is not safe for simple country congressmen to be unprotected.

IN A FEW DAYS

THE NEW ICE COMPANY WILL INCORPORATE, IT IS SAID.

Will Probably Get the Peanut Property at First and Washington Streets.

It is announced today that the promoters of the new ice and cold storage company have secured the property of the Paducah Peanut company, at First and Washington streets, and will at once prepare to manufacture ice.

Capt. James Koger, one of the trustees of the property, however, when telephoned at his home at noon in regard to it, stated that no deal had been closed to acquire the property by sale or lease. It is understood that the price to be paid is $40,000.

It is gathered from the statements, however, that the company expects to purchase the property and make the project a go. It expects to spend $25,000 rebuilding and remodeling the property. The company, to be known as the Consumers' Ice and Cold Storage company, will be incorporated at once, it is stated.

Mr. G. G. Perry, of Richmond, Ky., will be president, L. H. Hendrick, of Richmond, will be vice-president, George Morris, of St. Louis, will be secretary and treasurer and general manager, and J. C. Flournoy will be local attorney.

The company expects to make 100 tons of ice a day, in addition to that necessary for its cold storage, and expects to have thirty teams and to run them about twenty-five miles in every direction out of Paducah, the teams used for the country trade to make tri-weekly trips.

The Commercial club has been corresponding with the promoters of the enterprise since last May, and feels that it has landed it for Paducah, and that it will be an enterprise which the people will greatly appreciate.

PAT CROWE ACQUITTED

Jury Decided He Did Not Kidnap
Cudahy's Son.

Omaha, Neb. Feb. 17.—The jury in the trial of Pat Crowe, charged with robbery of Edward A. Cudahy, the Omaha packer of $25,000 in connection with the kidnaping of the latter's son five years ago after fifteen hours deliberation, returned a verdict of not guilty.

Pat Still a Prisoner.

Council Bluffs, Iowa, Feb. 17.—Pat Crowe is still a prisoner and will be arraigned next on a charge of street car robbery. Crowe declares himself confident of acquittal.

LOUBET RETIRES

And Says Farewell as President of France.

Paris, Feb. 17.—President Loubet has presided at his last sitting of the council of ministers before his retirement from the presidency today. President Loubet bid adieu to the ministers, thanking them for their services and expressing the hope that they remain in office with Premier Rouvier at the head of the cabinet. Rouvier replied to the president, assuring him that in retiring he carried with him the affection of all Frenchmen and the esteem of all foreign governments.

THE COUNTY RAISES ARE OVER $700,000

The Supervisors Have Finished
Their Work for This Year.

The Total County Assessment is Almost Eleven Million Dollars for This Year.

RECAPITULATION TO BEGIN

The county tax books have been footed up after the completion of the supervisors' work, and show that the total raise in both personal and real estate in this county, this year amounts to a fraction over $700,000, a raise of $520,000 over the raise of the preceding year.

The supervisors finished supervising the books last month and heard complaints from the first to the 15th of this month, adjourning on the 15th. The books were turned over to a committee composed of Supervisors J. C. Gilbert, R. J. Barber and G. R. Davis and the work of footing up the raises was finished this morning.

Last year the total assessment after the supervisors had finished amounted to $10,213,481 and was a raise of $180,000 over 1904. This year the total assessment will accordingly be $10,913,481 and a fraction over.

The books will be turned over to the county clerk Monday and he will begin the recapitulation and finish in ten days, he thinks. It will then be known what the raise was on personal, real and mixed estate.

BIG DEAL

OVER 500 HOGSHEADS BOUGHT
BY MR. W. B. KENNEDY.

He is Having it Prepared for Immediate Shipment to England.

One of the biggest private tobacco sales ever made during this season of the year in Paducah was completed today.

Mr. W. B. Kennedy, the well known independent tobacco broker, this week bought between 500 and 700 hogsheads of from common to good leaf for the English market. The price paid for the tobacco was not given out, but amounts to a great deal, most of the leaf being good. Mr. Kennedy is having the tobacco prepared for immediate shipment. It is stored here, and this was one of the biggest purchases made here in private sale in some time.

WARSHIP MANEUVERS.

The Greatest Ever Held Began Today.

London, Feb. 17.—The greatest warship maneuvers ever held today, when the channel and Atlantic fleets assembled for a fortnight's war game in the South Atlantic. The fleets include thirty-one battleships, sixteen armored cruisers besides many smaller craft, and are on watch for the imaginary navy of another country. The chief problem is protecting the merchant marine.

COUNTY UNIT AND CHILD LABOR BILLS

Seem to Be Hopelessly Lost for This Session.

Proposed Changes in Both But Nothing Definite Has Been Agreed On Yet.

GOV. BECKHAM A DELEGATE.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 17.—Following the discussion of the county unit local option bill in the senate yesterday both sides got together and it is probable that an agreement will be reached on a substitute measure to be presented Monday or Tuesday.

Senator Newman, of Woodford county, who succeeded in arranging the conference, made a speech on the floor of the senate during the discussion in which he took the position that counties containing cities of the first, second and third and fourth class should be exempted from the provisions of the bill.

The senators opposed to the bill want counties containing first and second-class cities exempted altogether. And in counties having third and fourth-class cities, the cities to be separate units.

From present indications the local option bill as at present drafted is hopelessly tied up.

Representatives of the manufacturers of the state, who have been meeting here for several days, together with representatives of labor organizations, and members of the assembly, for the purpose of drafting an agreed law as to child labor, voted yesterday afternoon against the bill drafted, and will likely go before the joint committee on immigration and labor, when it meets, and urge that the bill as drawn be delayed for further consideration. The labor men say this will kill the measure altogether for the present session, and that this is what the manufacturers are making the play to do.

With the combined opposition of the manufacturing interests, and the interests represented by Senator Maxwell, it looks as if the bill will have rough sailing through the upper branch before the close of the session.

Senator Campbell moved in the senate yesterday and the senate concurred, that Gov. Beckham be invited to attend the national divorce congress at Washington as a member of the Kentucky delegation.

O	This means a total saving of from $6,284 to $9,484 a year on
O	the moonlight schedule, which the city now has, 200-light basis.

The joint committee of the general council has received from the Paducah Light and Power company a supplementary proposition than the city's rates on street lights, "moonlight schedule," which means that on moonlight nights no lights will be turned on. It makes a difference of 1100 hours a year, the original proposition of the lighting company being on a 4000-hour service basis, and the supplementary one on a 2900-hour service basis.

The saving to the city over the present cost of street lights would of course be much greater under the supplementary proposition than this former.

It is not known what disposition the committee will make of the last proposition. It has fully investigated the light question and has all the figures before it, hence it will require little time to dispose of the new proposition when it comes before the committee.

The figures for the "moonlight schedule" are given as follows:

Paducah, Ky., Feb. 16, 1906.

To the Light and Water Committee of the General Council of the City of Paducah:

Gentlemen:—Referring to our letter of February 3d, and answering further your request for a proposition to light the streets and public buildings of the city of Paducah, we quote you the following prices for moonlight schedule for street service of approximately 2900 hours:

For 200 lamps and up to and including 249 lamps, $52.50 per lamp per year.

For 250 lamps and up to and including 299 lamps, $52.00 per lamp per year.

For 300 lamps and up to and including 349 lamps, $51.50 per lamp per year.

For 350 lamps and up to and including 399 lamps, $51.00 per lamp per year.

For 400 lamps and up to and including 449 lamps, $50.50 per lamp per year.

For 450 and over, $50.00 per lamp per year.

For the year 1906 to 1912, inclusive. For the year 1912 to 1916 inclusive, whatever number of lights may be required, $50 per lamp per year.

We will furnish 32-candle power series incandescent lamps at the rate of $13.50 per lamp per year.

This schedule does not in any way affect the proposition made in our letter of February 3d, except as regards the prices and schedule above quoted. Yours truly,

PADUCAH LIGHT AND POWER COMPANY.

TWO AT ONCE

DETECTIVE HAD ONE PRISONER AND COULDN'T GO AFTER OTHER.

Notified His Partner and Both Men Were Soon Behind the Bars.

Detective T. J. Moore knows what it means to be between two fires, but he was equal to the emergency.

Lige Suggs, colored, was arrested yesterday afternoon late by Detectives Moore and Baker at the Sowell mill on the charge of being a fugitive from justice. The detectives had information that he was wanted at Charlotte, Dickson county, Tennessee, for shooting Marshal Joseph Hesterhington on September 20, 1899. He proved to be the right man and was locked up.

Suggs wanted to get a shave and appear half way respectable when he reached Charlotte and asked the detective if he would take him to a barber shop, which was done. While Detective Moore was seated in the barber shop waiting the completion of the negro's toilet, he saw George Brown, colored, wanted for larceny, walking out of a saloon on the other side of the street. Brown was wanted badly yet the detective could not leave his prisoner in the barber chair. He fortunately found a telephone in the barber shop and telephoned his partner, Detective Baker, who after some little chase, secured his man.

Suggs was turned over to Sheriff S. A. Tidwell and his deputy, M. B. Hooper, of Charlotte, and the prisoner agreed to be taken back with-out a requisition.

Brown's case was continued. He is wanted for stealing two suits of clothes from the delivery wagon of Wallerstein Bros.

STILL AT LARGE

NO TRACE FOUND OF THE HAR-VEY SAFE-BLOWERS.

Men Said to Have Come From Paducah—Knew Where the Key Was.

The police are unable to find any trace of the men who cracked J. H. Ivey's safe at Harvey, Marshall county, last Saturday night and secured $50 in money, some jewelry and private notes and papers worth $1,000. The Benton Tribune-Democrat says of the robbery:

"The robbery was one of the boldest ever perpetrated in Western Kentucky and was accomplished by two men, who were seen in Benton Saturday afternoon and were traced as far as Gravel Switch on their way to Paducah Sunday morning."

"The work was accomplished shortly before midnight Saturday night. The crackmen went into the residence of Mr. Ivey and secured his key, which was hanging in the hall. This is one of the most peculiar features of the case, and points strongly to local complicity in the crime, or shows that the men had some means of securing knowledge concerning the hiding place of the key. They seemed to experience no difficulty in finding it on a nail, and they then unlocked the front door of the store and entered."

Theatrical Notes

NEXT WEEK AT THE KENTUCKY.

Monday night, Judge Henry Tyler, of Hickman, Ky., lecture on "The Wizard in the Saddle," for U. C. V. Friday night, Donnelly and Hatfield's minstrels.

Theatre goers of this city will have an opportunity to see the Donnelly & Hatfield magnificent minstrels at the opera house on Friday evening, of next week. This company is under the direction of Al G. Field.

It is said the first part is as refreshing as a dip into salt water. It is a tonic, and with the conclusion of its melody and its merriment and its lights and shades, for the first part is said to be done in as many colors as a chameleon's coat, the minds of the audience have been soothed and the general verdict is that Messrs. Donnelly & Hatfield have given to the public a necessity.

The olio is said to be rich in specialties. Each act is touched with humor in sympathy with the keynote sounded in the first part. Crawford & Flinn are said to do a musical act different from anything of its type. It is serio-comic and passes with snap. One of the entertaining

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few People Know How Useful It Is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoal sweetens the breath after smoking, drinking or after eating onions and other odorous vegetables. Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth, and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

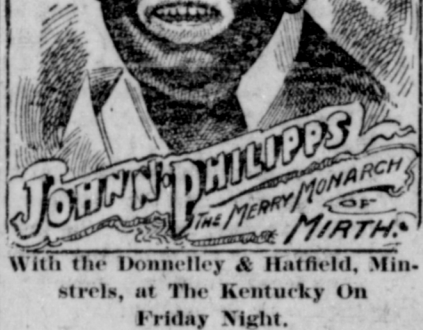

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

acts is the Darktown Circus, a burlesque upon the most popular of America's amusements, the circus. While one can count five the audience is introduced to all of the accessories and atmosphere that go to make a typical one-ring circus. The entire company of forty people take part in this scene. The setting is both gorgeous and realistic. This act is relieved by the Toledos, impersonators of animals, reptiles and amphibious monsters. They give feats of contortion and acrobatic agility.

"Where the Moonlight Falls" shows a miniature landscape with a full moon and rippling waters, where a company of darkies gather and do a series of dances. There is a monologue by Tommy Donnelly, and the Tuscano Brothers, Roman Axe Manipulators, will make their first American appearance with this company. These gentlemen balance, throw and juggle rude Roman axes.

With the Donnelly & Hatfield, Minstrels, at The Kentucky On Friday Night.

An Artistic Performance. The Frank Dudley Stock company presented "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" to one of the largest audiences of the season at the Kentucky theatre last night. It was a highly artistic performance, and the audience was well pleased with it. Mr. Dudley, in the dual role, won much commendation for his clever acting and remarkably quick changes. His support was all that could be desired. He has achieved well deserved fame in the play, and it shows that he is a finished actor in every sense of the word. The company closes a five-nights engagement this evening.

Receives Good Offers. Mr. Chris McMahon, the well-known tuba and double bass player of The Kentucky orchestra, signed a contract last season for this year with the Donnelly & Hatfield minstrels, but did not fulfil it because his lip became paralyzed temporarily and he could not play his tuba. Mr. McMahon is an excellent musician and has received offers from several high-class minstrels, among them being the above mentioned organization. Donnelly & Hatfield have an excellent company this season, and the band is a feature of the show. Several local musicians have seen it this season and say it can not be beaten.

WANT BLOODHOUNDS TO TRAIL THIEVES

Residents About Folsomdale are Tired of Thieving.

Much Meat and Stores Stolen During the Past Five Months—No Clue Left.

TELEPHONED PADUCAH POLICE.

The residents of Folsomdale, Graves county, Ky., a few miles north of Mayfield, have decided to break up petty thievery in that section and are trying to secure bloodhounds to trace the thieves, who have been operating in that section since last summer.

Meat and supplies seem to be the chief object of the thieves' raids, and a great deal of meat has been stolen this winter. The latest theft was reported this morning. Some one broke into the residence of Mr. Sodom Mason near Folsomdale, and stole a lot of meat and provisions. The tracks were plain, but there was no positive way to trail the thieves.

A telephone message was received at police headquarters this morning asking for bloodhounds, but there are none here, and the residents were referred to Fulton, where it is said a pair of the hounds are kept.

It is said that several hundred dollars' worth of beef has been stolen from that section, first from one resident and then another, in the past five months.

$1.70 TAX RATE

Will Not Be Increased at Lexington This Year.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 17.—The city council has decided that the city tax rate of $1.70 should not be increased during 1906, and although this rate will leave a discrepancy between the revenues and the present scale of expenditures, the deficiency will be made up partly by the increase of license rates and a reduction in small appropriations.

The council adopted the recommendation of the ways and means committee that the city license on each of the 150 saloons in Lexington be increased from $125 to $250, the maximum permitted by the charter. The license for conducting a theater was raised to $250, and a large number of minor licenses were shoved up the scale to about the limit.

This increase in licenses will make an increase of about $12,000 in the city's income, and the council will eliminate the remaining deficit of about $8,000 by reducing minor appropriations as the year progresses.

The city weigher was put on a system of fees instead of a salary. It is believed this will save the city at least $1,000.

THE DOCTORS

PROPOSE TO START A COLLECTION CAMPAIGN SOON.

They Claim the Physician is a Much Abused Man When It Comes to Paying Him.

The McCracken County Medical Society has been in existence for several years and all meetings have been pertaining to the uplifting and betterment of the profession strictly speaking, but the society now proposed to take some action towards the financial end of it—an end which has been in a way neglected of late years.

The following amendment to the by-laws of the society has been suggested by a member of the society and will be voted on at the next regular meeting of the society on the 28th at the office of Dr. J. D. Robertson.

The proposed change speaks for itself and reads as follows:

"Agreements and schedules of fees shall be made by this society, and at least one meeting during each year shall be set apart for a discussion of the business affairs of the profession of the county with the view of adopting the best methods for the guidance of all. In all proper ways the public shall be taught that business and prompt collections are essential to the equipment of the modern physician and surgeon, and that it suffers even more than the profession when this is not recognized."

In speaking of the matter a prominent physician explained why the doctors had decided to start a collecting campaign in Paducah. "The better class of physicians have one end in view, that of curing the patient the money matter to be an after consideration. There are hundreds of patients in Paducah who neglect the financial part and it has become so bad that the proposed 'black list' method has been talked of," the doctor declared.

"Some doctors demand their money before they will give service, and they generally get it." In fact doctors all over the country are starting a campaign for better collections. They realize that the grocer receives his pay as does the coal man and the clothier, but the doctor is last to be considered and oftentimes he is the man who is due the most.

The proposed meeting once a year will be devoted to discussion of the financial matter.

ADDITIONAL WRECKER

May Be Secured for This Territory on the I. C.

The local I. C. wrecking crew has put in a good solid week of hard work, and got in this morning from the Nashville division of the road, where a passenger wreck occurred Sunday night.

The engine and three cars were overturned and the crew had been working on this all the week. The engine, No. 648, was brought into the shops this morning.

The Paducah wrecker has a bigger territory now to work than formerly, due to the acquisition of the Tennessee Central road and the creation of the Nashville division. For a time the advisability of establishing a wrecker at Princeton for this division was under consideration, but nothing developed. It is thought the road will take the matter up again, as the wreck this week demonstrated that an additional wrecker is needed.

WORDS OF PRAISE WELL MERITED

BY A WELL KNOWN ARTICLE.

So much has been written by the standard medical authorities, of all the several schools of practice, in praise of the native, or American, medicinal plants which enter into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, that it is attempting to quote from the various works on Materia Medica one hardly knows where to commence, since they are so voluminous that only the briefest and most imperfect reference can be presented in a short article like this.

Briefly then let us say that the "Golden Medical Discovery" was named from the sturdy little plant Golden Seal, the root of which enters largely into its composition. Besides this most valuable ingredient, it contains glyceric extracts of Stone root, Queen's root, Black Cherrybark, Bloodroot and Mandrake root. Dr. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., an eminent practitioner of Chicago and Professor of Materia Medica in the Bennett Medical College of that city, in his recently published work on Therapeutics, says of Golden Seal root: "It is the most natural of stimulents to the normal functions of digestion. Its influence upon the mucous surfaces renders it most important in catarrhal gastritis (inflammation of stomach) and gastric (stomach) ulceration."

Many other authorities as well as Dr. Ellingwood extol the Hydrastis (Golden Seal), as a remedy for catarrhal diseases of the nasal passages, stomach, bronchia, gall ducts, kidneys, intestines and bladder. Among these, we may mention Prof. John King, M. D., author of the American Dispensary; Prof. J. M. Sessler, M. D., in his Scientific Medication; Dr. H. C. of the Hahnemann Med. College of Chicago; Grover Coe, M. D., of New York, in his Organic Medicines; Dr. Bartholow of Jefferson Med. College and scores of other leading medical writers and teachers.

All the foregoing eminent authorities extol the curative virtues of Golden Seal in cases of stomach, liver and intestinal weakness, torpor and ulceration of bowels. Dr. Ellingwood recommends it most highly. "In those cases of atonic dyspepsia when the entire apparatus, including the liver, is stagnant and impotently." He also extols it most highly in the many weaknesses and derangements peculiar to women and says, "It is a most important remedy in many disorders of the womb." Golden Seal root (Hydrastis), is an important ingredient of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, "run-down" women.

But to return to the "Golden Medical Discovery" it may be said that its curative properties are not wholly dependent upon Golden Seal, valuable as it is, as other equally potent ingredients add greatly to its value and in fact are not less important than the Hydrastis, or Golden Seal.

In all bronchial, throat, lung and kindred ailments, Stone root, Black Cherrybark, Queen's root and Bloodroot, each plays as important a part in effecting the phenomenal cures of "Golden Medical Discovery" as does Golden Seal. All these ingredients have the endorsement of prominent practitioners of all schools of medicine for the cure of diseases of the bronchia, throat and lungs.

Of Queen's root, Prof. King says: "An alternative (blood purifier) unsurpassed by few if any other of the known alteratives. Most successful in skin and scrofulous affections; beneficial in bronchial affections; permanently cures bronchitis; relieves irritations; an important cough remedy; cures of years' standing being cured; aids in blood-making and nutrition and may be taken with out harm for long periods."

Queen's root, Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark and Bloodroot, all articles extolled by leading practitioners of all the schools, as the very best of cough medicines, are made especially valuable when combined with chemically pure glycerine which greatly enhances the curative action of all these ingredients in all bronchial, throat and lung affections, severe coughs and kindred ailments.

Who can doubt the efficacy of such a compound, when scientifically made up, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery? Who can doubt that it is a most effective remedy for the several diseases for which its ingredients are so highly recommended by the foremost writers on Materia Medica?

It is in the cure of the more chronic or lingering, persistent, and obstinate cases of bronchial, laryngeal and lung affections, attended by hoarseness and severe cough, which it neglected or badly treated would generally have run into consumption, that "Golden Medical Discovery" has won the highest praise from all who have observed its marvelous control over these kindred affections. It is no cheap compound made-up of trashy ingredients for free distribution, that curious people may experiment upon themselves as with the many fake nostrums so commonly sent out as "trial bottles." It has a forty year record, embracing many thousands of cures behind it, is sold at a reasonable price and may be found in all drug and medicine stores in this and many foreign countries.

It will be seen from the above brief extracts how well "Golden Medical Discovery" is adapted for the cure of all blood diseases, as, scrofulous and skin affections, eruptions, blotches, pimples and kindred affections, which it equally goes to the root of all Catarrhal affections no matter where seated, and for all cases of indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness and as a tonic and invigorator in all manner of weaknesses, and in nervous debility and prostration the above extracts amply show.

Much further information as to the properties and uses of "Golden Medical Discovery" and Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak women, will be found in a little booklet of extracts from standard medical books which will be mailed free to any address on request, by letter or postal card, sent to Dr. E. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

All the several ingredients of Dr. Pierce's medicines will be found, from the reading of this little booklet, to have the strongest possible professional endorsements and recommendations for the cure of all the diseases for which these medicines are recommended. No other medicines for like purposes have any such endorsement. They are non-alcoholic, non-secret, safe and reliable.

The Week In Society.

FOR ST. VALENTINE.

Sweetheart ere Spring awakes
Out of her slumber deep,
Before the bud in beauty breaks
And brooks their prisons leap,
Across the drifted snow,
Mile upon lonely mile
The tireless feet of Cupid go
To find Spring in your smile.

It matters not how dim
The Winter's world may be,
The hidden paths are known to him,
And straight ahead goes he;
Along the mountain trail
By valley road he flies,
Sure at the end he shall not fail
To find Spring in your eyes.

Some morning at your door
A timid knock shall tell
Of love's arrival evermore
In peace with you to dwell;
His lips shall ask your kiss,
And plead with rosy art;
Beloved, grant his dream of bliss,
To find Spring in your heart.

The Holiday of Hearts.

The jolly good St. Valentine can not complain that he has been neglected by Paducah society in this year of grace, 1906. If "all the world loves a lover" surely it is but natural that the Patron Saint of Lovers should be made much of. And all kinds of pretty and charming affairs have been given in his honor, while he has been tendered Hearts of all sorts and colors in the decorations thereof, except blue, but then who ever heard of a Blue Heart at Valentine? It would be something as strange as "Blue Roses," and certainly not an article of commodity permissible on Cupid's "triumphant holiday." It has been said that when hearts are trumps at Valentine, Hymen reaps a harvest of them at Eastertide, but that is "quite another story," and will have another telling.

Card Party This Afternoon.

Mrs. John McCandless' card party this afternoon at her home on West Jefferson street is a pretty complimentary to her house guest, Mrs. Samuel McCandless, of Saginaw, Mich.

It is a red party and the color is effectively carried out in all the decorations details and in the setting of the delicious course luncheon served after the game. The guest list includes besides Mrs. McCandless, the guest of honor: Mesdames Allen Ashcraft, Henry Hughes, J. C. Flournoy, Victor Voris, W. A. Gardner, Muscoe Burnett, J. E. English, William Gilbert, Clifford Budd, William McPherson, William Marble, Robert MacMillen, C. C. Warren, George B. Hart, Hubbard Wells, W. B. Mills, Luke Russell, Harry Williamson, John Williamson, Irvin McArthur, of Lapeer, Mich.; Percy Paxton, John Donovan, C. L. Van Meter, John Little, Clara Culley, James P. Laffey, of Cincinnati; Misses Faith Langstaff, Monima Hopkins, Frances Herndon, Susan Wetherald, Blanche Hills, Flora Nall, of Louisville; Leone Kessell, of Pontiac, Mich.; Anne Sherrill Baird.

As You Like It Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Armour Gardner entertained the As You Like It club very delightfully at cards on Friday evening at their home on Fountain avenue. It was a pretty party and the valentine motif was carried out in the talley cards and details of the decorations. Mrs. Victor Voris made the highest score for the club and Mrs. James E. English for the visitors. Mr. Henry Rudy won the gentleman's prize. An attractive course-luncheon was served after the game.

Pretty Patriotic Party.

Mrs. Hubbard S. Wells was the hostess of a pretty card party on Friday afternoon at her apartments in the Empire Flats, on Broadway. The patriotism of February was effectively emphasized throughout the rooms by the colors red, white and blue and the attractive grouping of numberless flags. The talley cards, also, carried out the red, white and blue scheme.

The game prize was won by Mrs. Linneaus Orme. The lone-hand prize was taken by Miss Clara Thompson. The delightful course-luncheon was attractively served in the color-motif of red, white and blue.

Mrs. Wells' guest-list included fourteen tables.

Informal Afternoon.

Mrs. Elbridge Palmer gave an informal afternoon tea on Thursday at her home, "The Ferns," in honor of her cousins and guest, Mrs. Elizabeth C. Hendrick, of Washington, D. C. A delightful luncheon was served and the occasion was a most pleasant one.

Mrs. Hendrick formerly lived in Paducah and has a large kindred and friendship circle here. The guests of the afternoon were limited to the relatives and a few special friends.

For Mrs. Laffey.

The card party given by Mrs. Clifford Mills Budd on Monday afternoon at her home on Broadway in compliment to her mother and guest, Mrs. James P. Laffey, of Cincinnati, was an exceedingly pretty event of the week.

It embodied the Valentine idea in all its details with charming effect. The colors, pink and green, were artistically brought out in the carnation and palm decorations of the rooms. The talley were hand-painted Cupid valentines. The first prize, a classic bust, was won by Mrs. Chas. James, of Evansville. Miss Faith Langstaff captured the second prize, a pretty plate. The lone-hand prize, a dainty picture, went to Mrs. Victor Voris.

In the two-course afternoon luncheon that followed the game, the valentine motif and prevailing colors were prettily suggested by the ices served in pink candy hearts surrounded by smilax. An orchestra played throughout the afternoon. Beside the honoree, Mrs. Laffey, the guests present were: Mrs. Laura Fowler, Mrs. W. B. McPherson, Mrs. Thomas Leech, Mrs. L. A. Glover, Mrs. Victor Voris, Mrs. Chas. James, of Evansville; Mrs. Charles E. Richardson, Mrs. W. A. Gardner, Mrs. Luke Russell, Mrs. R. G. Terrell, Mrs. O. L. Gregory, Mrs. Eli Boone, Mrs. John Keller, Mrs. Edwin Rivers, Mrs. Hal Corbett, Mrs. Will Bradshaw, Jr., Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. James Utterback; Miss Faith Langstaff, Miss Jessie Nash, Miss Carrie Phillips, of Pittsburgh; Miss Elizabeth Sinnott.

Mrs. Utterback's Card Party.

Mrs. James Utterback's Valentine card party on Tuesday afternoon at her home in Arcadia was one of the handsomest affairs of the winter. Hearts were used throughout in the decorations of the spacious rooms, but the colors were varied with a pretty effect.

In the reception hall and library the foliage tints were given by the decoration of green hearts and numberless plants. The double parlors were in the pink color-motif with pink carnations and hearts. The dining-room was a charming symphony of red carnations and hearts with large crimson tulle bows.

The tables were arranged throughout the rooms and the talley were dainty valentines, each tied with ribbons corresponding to the room. After the game an attractive course-luncheon was served at the tables, the ices and cakes emphasizing the color-effect of each room in a most artistic way.

For the married ladies' prize, a cut glass bowl, Mrs. Herman Wallerstein and Mrs. Saunders Fowler cut, and Mrs. Wallerstein won. Miss Mildred Terrell captured the young ladies' prize. Mrs. James Campbell, Jr., received the lone-hand prize, a gauze fan with pearl spokes; and the consolation prize, a hand-painted plate, went to Miss Clara Thompson.

Mrs. Utterback's invitation list was over one hundred and twenty-three tables of guests were present.

Wednesday Afternoon Card Party.

Mrs. Robert Reeves was the hostess of a very delightful afternoon at cards on Wednesday at her home on Jefferson street.

The game prize was won by Mrs. Richard G. Terrell, and Mrs. Victor Voris, was the successful winner in the lone hand contest. Both prizes were handsome pieces of hand-decorated china. An elaborate course luncheon delightfully served followed the game. The guest tables numbered ten.

Comus Club.

Mr. Clifford Blackburn, of South 11th street, was the host of the Comus club on Tuesday evening. It was a pleasant card affair, and the prizes were won by Miss Ethel McMahon and Mr. Jack Parkman. Mr. Blackburn captured the lone hand prize.

The guests present were: / Misses

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is not really a sickness, but a symptom. It is a symptom of a certain set of nerves is ailing. Not the voluntary nerves that enable you to walk and talk and act—but the AUTOMATIC STOMACH NERVES over which your mind has no control.

I have not room here to explain how these tender, tiny nerves control and operate the stomach. How worry breaks them down and causes indigestion. How misuse wears them out and causes dyspepsia. How neglect may bring on kidney, heart and other troubles through sympathy. I have not room to explain how these nerves may be reached and strengthened and vitalized and made stronger by a remedy I spent years in perfecting—now known by physicians and druggists everywhere as DR. SHOOP'S RESTORATIVE (Tablets or Liquid). I have not room to explain how this remedy, by removing the cause, usually puts a certain end to indigestion, belching, heartburn, insomnia, nervousness, dyspepsia. All of these things are fully explained in the book I will send you free when you write. Do not fail to send for the book. It tells how the solar plexus governs digestion and a hundred other things every one ought to know—for all of us at some time or other have indigestion. With the book I will send free my "Health Token"—an intended passport to good health.

Merry Valentine Party.

Miss Eda Bergdoll, of South Eleventh street, entertained a number of her friends with an enjoyable Valentine party on Wednesday evening. It was a happy occasion and Cupid's fete-day was symbolized by a very unique contest. A large crimson heart containing a number of small hearts of varied colors was hung on the wall, at which darts were thrown. Each heart when pierced had a clever prophecy for the victor and caused much merriment when read.

Cards followed this contest and the girls' prize was won by Miss Marie Roth. The boys' prize was captured by Mr. Joseph Roth. The delightful luncheon was served in the dining-room, which was decorated with hearts in a color-scheme of red and white, and the cream was a pretty effect of red cherries frozen in the white.

Delphic Club.

The Delphic club met on Tuesday morning in the Delphic club room of the Carnegie library. Three especially clever papers were presented: "Maria Theresa—The Court," by Mrs. Muscoe Burnett; "Louise de la Valliere," by Mrs. George C. Wallace; "Madame Sevigne," by Miss Kathleen Whitefield. It was a most interesting session of the club.

Ben Hur in Memphis.

A number of Paducahans went to Memphis this week to witness the presentation of Ben Hur in that city on Thursday and Friday evenings.

In Mrs. W. J. Hills' party were Mrs. Irvin MacArthur, of Lapeer, Mich., Miss Leone Kessell, of Pontiac, Mich., Miss Susan Wetherald, Miss Belle Cave, and Misses Blanche, Helen and Grace Hills.

Mr. and Mrs. I. O. Walker chaperoned Miss Grace Everett, Mr. Arthur Everett and Mr. Ben Matthis.

Mrs. T. Miller Sisson and Miss Bernice Miller were also in attendance.

THE TRUTH ABOUT MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP.

A week ago the town of Hickman, Ky., weary of running its light and water plant at a loss/leased both for five years; with privilege of renewing the lease for 15 years longer.

The Hickman Courier, in commenting on this action says:

"Municipal ownership has rarely been successful in the United States.

"In Kentucky all chartered cities are so limited by the state constitution and laws that the necessary amount of capital cannot always be obtained. The liability to change of management is another reason why the operation of such plants by cities is not usually satisfactory.

"The city of Paducah with as much current as it used there is contemplating a change in the street lighting to a private corporation. It is claimed that it costs the city of Paducah about $10 more a year per light than the offer made by a private company. Why Paducah cannot supply enough current as cheap as a private corporation is a question much easier to solve than Hickman's troubles with the light plant and water works. If the coal and ice company succeeds in operating the plant and finds it profitable the patrons will doubtless find the arrangement satisfactory in the better service and the city will be pleased with the improvement of the plant and the opportunity of learning how before the expiration of the lease."

The Chicago Tribune says of municipal ownership in the larger cities:

"Mr. Dalrymple says that under municipal ownership it would be almost impossible in Chicago to keep politics out of street railway management. It is his opinion that in this and every other large American city a political machine would be created that would be simply impregnable. He thinks 'the machine' is already strong enough through its control of policemen, firemen and other city employees. There are many prominent advocates of municipal ownership who are not dismayed by these remarks. They know Mr. Dalrymple is telling the truth, but in this instance the truth does not displease them. They are politicians masquerading as municipal owners, and their object in urging the acquisition and operation of traction lines by the city is to make the traction business and the street car employees amenable to political control. These politicians are working for their 'machine,' not for the people. They say they wish to give the public better service. What they are after is more patronage and influence for themselves. No set of politicians could ask for a richer prize—a more lucrative field of labor—than the control under municipal ownership of a traction system."

fluence which could be exerted is enormous. The opportunities for grafting on a magnificent scale are apparent. The other municipal departments put together would not offer equal facilities to greedy and unscrupulous men."

The Louisville Courier-Journal adds to this:

"Unquestionably there is a sentiment from that of the politicians. Many people, impatient of public utilities, would rush into the greater evils of municipal ownership. But, recognizing this, it is not to be denied that the most enthusiastic advocates of municipal ownership are the political spoilsmen who want municipal ownership for what they know they can get out of it."

WHAT DO THE PEOPLE WANT?

Some of the members of the legislative boards admit that they do not believe the city can operate its light plant as cheaply as it can purchase lights from the lighting company, but that they expect to vote to continue to operate the city plant, because they are "afraid of public opinion." It would be difficult to say just exactly upon what principle of good government such a decision can be based, but it has the commendable feature of evoking an honest confession, which is said to be good for the soul.

Public opinion may be in favor of the city operating a light plant at a cost of $7,000 more a year to the tax payers, than the cost of better lights would be from a private company, but we doubt it. In the first place, there is no way to properly gauge public opinion. Even a vote on a question does not always show the true sentiment, for everyone does not vote. How much more difficult it must be, then, to try to arrive at public opinion by taking haphazard statements heard on the streets.

It has been shown what the street lights have cost Paducah in past years, and it is known that the private company offers to furnish them at a figure several thousand dollars less than the city has been paying. It has not been shown the city can reduce the cost of lights for past years, and has been admitted that with $20,000 more invested in the plant, the interest annually would be $1,000, and the depreciation $2,000, adding to the cost of 200 lights, $15 more a light than the $84 a light the city has already been paying. Consequently, there is no reason whatever so far as we can see, consistent with good, economical government, for compelling the taxpayers of Paducah to pay an unnecessary and exorbitant price for street lights, when they can save money and get more and better service by purchasing the lights from a private company. Taxpayers are not the only ones who will have to bear the burden, for property owners usually raise the rent in proportion to their taxes. Rent payers are taxpayers, and we do not believe that public opinion would support the imposition of this unnecessary expense on the people, if people would take the trouble to cast sentiment aside and look at the proposition from a business standpoint.

When at the end of this year, the report from the city light plant shows that lights have cost the city several thousand dollars more than the price at which they might have been had, we trust our legislative boards will have some plausible excuse to offer the taxpayers, but aside from "we wanted the city to operate the plant, and it did," we do not see what it will be.

We do not believe, however, that the people want any such reasoning, under the circumstances.

$522 DAMAGE.

This is the Amount Needed to Repair Roads After Rains.

County Road Supervisor Bert Johnson this morning finished making out his report of the damage done to county roads, culverts, etc., by the two heavy rains several weeks ago.

He estimated the damage at the time roughly at $500 and did not miss it far. The total damage in other ways amounted to exactly $522.07 and all repairs have been made. The worst washout was at Maxon Mill bridge. This report will be filed with the fiscal board at the next meeting.

THE PRESIDENT'S DAUGHTER WEDS

sion, 831 Eighteenth street, the property of Mrs. Longworth, mother of the groom. Between congressional sessions and after Mr. Longworth quits public life, they will live at "Rookwood," the ancestral home of the Longworth family, in Cincinnati. Mrs. Longworth, the elder, will make her home with her son and new daughter, both at the capital and in Ohio.

The Courtship.

This, in brief, is the happy culmination of a romance that has kept society astir at the nation's capital for the last two years. The love story began really a year or so earlier, soon after Mr. Longworth was elected to congress, and shortly succeeding Miss Roosevelt's "coming out." But it was not until the young representative had become a frequent visitor at the White House and was often seen in Miss Alice's company that their friends began to read a courtship in their association.

It is said that he finally gained her consent to his suit while they were visiting the Imperial Palace at Peking. As they entered the portal of the emperor's home he asked for the thirteenth time, "Will you be my wife?" and she replied, "I'll give you an answer before we leave this building." What she said after that is not recorded, but during the remainder of the tour, it was noticed that Mr. Longworth's smile was even more genial, more confident, and more frequent than before, and he was, if anything, more devoted in his gallantries.

The engagement was formally announced by President and Mrs. Roosevelt on December 12th.

The Bride's Wedding Garment.

Her gowns are all of American fashioning, most of them having been made by a celebrated New York modiste. The wedding garment is of rich white brocade satin, woven from an exclusive pattern in a Paterson (N. J.) mill. It is cut-princess style, as are nearly all the dresses worn by the president's daughter, with a neck and yoke of point lace, elbow sleeves and court train. Several of her reception and ball gowns are of materials given her by the dowager empress of China and other distinguished personages whom she met on her tour of the orient. There are beautiful Chinese, Japanese and Indian silks, and the delicate pina of the Philippines. Miss Roosevelt is said to have had no less than a dozen gowns made. There were several cloth dresses, in addition to those made of oriental stuffs, a yellow satin evening gown, a pink satin dinner gown, a yellow chiffon tea gown made over satin, and a cloak for the opera. One of the special designs woven at the Paterson looms reproduces the Roosevelt crest in the silk and makes a novel and attractive effect.

Many Presents.

Miss Roosevelt probably received a greater variety of wedding presents than were ever before given to an American bride. From every part of the world, from every class of society, the remembrances came. They number considerably over a thousand, and probably represent in monetary value nearly a quarter of a million dollars.

The ceremony was concluded without hitch or flaw, and at 12:14 the fateful words were pronounced. An incident which threatened to mar the solemnity of the occasion occurred shortly before Bishop Satterlee began reading the marriage service. Mrs. Wayne McVeagh, wife of the former attorney-general, one of the guests, fainted, and was carried to the retiring room, where she soon revived, and witnessed the ceremony.

The diplomatic corps, acting on the advice of the Austrian minister, appeared in citizen's dress, instead of gold lace and braid.

LOOKS WORSE NOW

The Big Coal Strike May Be Pulled Off, After All.

New York, Feb. 17.—The confident feeling expressed on all sides that the miners and operators would be able to adjust their differences and there would be no strike in the anthracite fields is not so plainly apparent today. Indications are not lacking that the struggle which both sides have made will be fought to the bitter end.

Imperial Confectionery Co. Will open for business at 331 Broadway, Feb. 17, with a full line of up-to-date home-made candies, fruits, nuts and everything found in a first-class confectionery. Oysters and ice cream in season.

WEEK'S NEWS IN THE COMMERCIAL WORLD.

Bank clearings this week...$676,116

Same week last year.....491,981

Increase.....$184,135

The clearings for this week show that business has been good in Paducah. The arrival yesterday of the pay train helped a great deal, and business tonight will be excellent, from indications.

Both retailers and wholesalers report satisfactory business, and expect it to improve from now on.

Bradstreet's Weekly Letter.

New York, Feb. 17.—Spring trade in dry goods, clothing, shoes and millinery continues to show expansion despite the presence of winter conditions. Retail has been appreciably helped by the weather but considerable stock will unquestionably be carried over because the re-order business has been heavy owing to the weather earlier in the season. The effect of this to carry over on the next fall and winter demands, remains to be seen. Other developments have been generally favorable. Concessions in pig iron prices, have brought out some new business. Building material was apparently never so active as at this season, lumber leading—and the output in northern forests has been helped by the recent heavy snows. Common brick will be reduced in the west March first, but is still firm in the east. Coal feels the influence of cold weather and strike talk in former prices and enlarged demand. Collections are fair to good except in the south, record spring trade is apparently all secured and future crop development will largely govern the fall and winter trade which as yet is of small aggregate volume.

Bank Clearings.

New York, Feb. 17.—Total bank clearings compiled by Bradstreet's for the principal cities of the United States for the past week were $2,764,251,267, increase of 20.3 per cent. compared with corresponding period last year.

Weekly Failures.

Failure this week 241 in the United States against 258 last year.

Comes to Paducah to Live.

The Jackson, Tenn. Whig of yesterday says:

N. B. Barrar has accepted a position with a spoke manufacturing concern at Paducah, Ky.

Mr. Barrar, who resides with his family at 617 East Chester street, intends leaving for Paducah to begin his new duties in the next few days. His family will probably remain in the city for some time.

Mr. Barrar's change of residence will prevent him from making the race for mayor. It was his intention to run on a labor ticket and the friends who had volunteered their support will be sorry to learn of his departure.

Postal Company's Showing.

The annual report of the Trustees of the Mackay companies, including the Postal Telegraph Co., was issued today and stated that the companies own a part or all of the capital stock of seventy-four cable, telephone and telegraph companies in the United States, Canada and Europe, including the Commercial Cable and Postal Telegraph system. The report states that the Mackay companies is one of the largest stockholders in the American Telephone and Telegraph company, commonly known as the Bell Telephone company, and that during the past year it has acquired control of the North American can Telegraph company, which for twenty years has owned and operated a telegraph system in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa and Illinois. The report shows that the Mackay companies has no debts, and that there are $40,645,600 preferred shares, and $41,380,400 common shares.

Mayfield Matters.

Mayfield, Ky., Feb. 17.—Gabe R. Allen, who hurried to El Paso last week in response to a message concerning the feeble condition of his wife, arrived yesterday with Mrs. Allen. Her condition is considered as beyond hope, and it is thought that she cannot live many days longer. She was sent to El Paso, Texas, a few months ago with the hope that her health would improve, but last week the physician in charge notified Mr. Allen that they could do her no good, and it was considered best to bring her home. A special car was engaged.

Mr. J. A. Browning, one of the city's oldest and best known citizens, lies at his home in a dying condition. His death is expected at any moment, and the physicians have given up all hope of his survival. Mr. Browning has been confined to his home for the past five or six weeks with kidney trouble.

Dr. Dismukes, Jr., yesterday removed a toe from the foot of Lon Sanderson, which was crushed between two freight cars, Saturday night. It may become necessary to remove the whole foot.

MUCH IMPROVEMENT IN THE TEACHERS

Supt. C. M. Lieb Feels Much Gratified.

The Teachers Discussed School Management at Their Meeting Yesterday Afternoon.

SUPT. LIEB'S SUMMER PLANS

Supt. C. M. Lieb, of the public schools, stated this morning that he would probably go away this summer to some university for a post-graduate course, and will not conduct a normal school this summer as he did last. Supt. Lieb always attends college in the summer but last year made it an exception, due to the fact that he desired to get the teaching force in good condition for a better class of work.

A normal school was conducted here the greater part of the summer and a world of good was done. Many teachers did not remain here, but some went to Chicago and other cities to enter normal schools. The result was satisfactory, a new interest being aroused in the teacher and better work resulting this year.

Where formerly it was the desire of teachers to be competent enough only to hold their jobs, it is now their desire to push ahead and do even better work. With this status of affairs, the schools are bound to progress, and from indication there will be many local teachers leaving Paducah to attend normal schools and colleges this summer.

Yesterday afternoon Supt. Lieb conducted the monthly teachers' meeting and the subject of discussion was "School Management." The meeting was one of the most successful ever held and developed the fact that the teachers have advanced wonderfully in their methods of school management. All the advantages of other schools and universities in this matter—school management—were laid before the teachers for them to profit by.

The regular Tuesday lecture this week before the Paducah high school was given by Rabbi Lovitch, of Temple Israel. "The Benefits of a High School" was the subject, and it was one of the most interesting of the many good ones that have been delivered. Rabbi Lovitch is an agreeable speaker and a thoughtful student and delighted his hearers.

The debating club of the High school held its regular meeting last night in Supt. Lieb's office. The question, "Resolved, That water is more destructive than fire," was discussed freely. Those on the affirmative were: John Rinkliffe and Thos. Woodbridge; while the negative was defended by Will Rock and Robt. Halley. The negative won the decision. The next meeting will be in about two weeks.

Itch—Ringworm.

E. T. Lucas, Wingo, Ky., writes April 25, 1902: "For 10 to 12 years I had been afflicted with a malady known as the 'itch.' The itching was most unbearable; I had tried for years to find relief, having tried all remedies I could hear of, besides a number of doctors. I wish to state that one single application of Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me completely and permanently. Since then I have used the Liniment on two separate occasions for ring worm and it cured completely. 25c, 50c and $1 at Alvey & List's and G. C. C. Kolb's."

BALLARD CASE AFFIRMED.

W. J. Abrams Had Been Sued for Damages.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 17.—The court of appeals, Judge Settle writing, affirmed the Ballard circuit court in the case of Rebecca F. Washburn vs. W. J. Abrams. The action was for damages against appellee, and Eugenia Turner for alleged unlawful detention of appellant's three children, who, she alleged, had been sent to visit them. The lower court sustained a demurrer.

YOUR FILTERS

CHOKED BY URIC ACID CRYSTALS

Did you ever read the Story of the Blood? How it goes all through your system picking up and carrying away all waste matter—all impurities?

The blood thus laden with waste matter, goes through your filters—your kidneys. They filter out impurities—principally uric acid.

But if your kidneys—the body's filters—become clogged, then the uric acid remains in the blood and your health is gradually broken down.

It is in this way that uric acid causes rheumatism, neuralgia, catarrh, kidney and stomach trouble.

Physicians' Own Theory Of Uric Acid Diseases

Did you ever get a grain of sand in your eye?

Well—when your kidneys get out of order and your system fills up with uric acid, this acid turns into little sharp grains like sand.

And these sharp sand-like grains of uric acid go cutting and scratching through the delicate tubes leading into your kidneys, and these little tubes are just as tender as your eye.

Imagine the irritation and inflammation they cause! That is kidney trouble. But the uric acid does more—far more.

It forms what your physician calls uric salts—and when you catch cold—get your feet wet; worry, or over-work yourself, your blood deposits these salts in different parts of your body.

They collect in the joints and produce articular Rheumatism—in the muscles, causing Inflammatory Rheumatism—in the membranes, causing catarrh, and so with stomach trouble—Neuralgia, Heart Disease, Eczema and other troubles.

LIFE PLANT'S ACTION ON URIC ACID

When you get anything in your eye—what is the first thing you do? Get it out—don't you?

Well when your system gets full of uric acid and you have Kidney Trouble, Catarrh, Neuralgia, etc.—how will you cure yourself?

By getting rid of the uric acid! Isn't that reasonable?

That is just what LIFE PLANT is made to do. It goes direct to the afflicted part—dissolves the uric acid—and the kidneys, flushed by the LIFE PLANT, carry the uric acid out of the body.

LIFE PLANT is made of herbs. It is not a patent medicine and contains no drugs—no narcotics. It is a harmless but certain cure for uric acid diseases.

Write us for information concerning the thousands of people who have been cured by LIFE PLANT. Write us today.

THE SYMPTOMS OF EXCESS URIC ACID

Headache, poor digestion, biliousness, dry skin, shortness of breath, palpitation, darting pains, dark-colored urine, sluggish brain, sleeplessness, and in women, menstrual disorders.

These are the beginnings of disease, and demand immediate attention. If you have any of the above symptoms, take LIFE PLANT at once, and ward off serious illness. If you have any of the diseases that follow these symptoms, act at once. LIFE PLANT cures by removing the cause.

THOUGHT HE WAS A REAL DETECTIVE

Mound City Negro Had Three Pistols When Arrested.

Took Possession of the Dick Fowler's Cabin and Made the Negroes Dance.

GOT $125 FINE, 30 DAYS IN JAIL.

Will Dixon, colored, who imagines himself a full-fledged United States detective, "got his" in police court this morning and will not play "Indian" again for some time to come. He was fined in two cases a total of $125, with 30 days in jail as trimmings. It all came about through the agency of bad liquor.

Dixon carried a full artillery equipment on his person, besides numerous papers alleged to give him detective powers, and he tried to assert his authority on board the steamer Dick Fowler this morning at the wharf, but the attempt ended disastrously.

Dixon lives in Mound City, Ill., at least that is where he claims he lives. Two weeks ago he showed up at the county court house with a woman and secured a marriage license. He claimed to be a United States detective and seemed to be drinking. The license was issued and the occupation registered as U. S. Detective. This was the last heard of Dixon until this morning, when Detective Will Baker received a telephone message to hasten to the wharfoat.

Dixon had taken temporary charge of the cabin of the steamer. He had amused himself by compelling cabin boys and deckhands to do frantic clogs and pigeon-wing dances, ending in chasing them out at the point of a big pistol.

Detective Baker found the cabin deserted except for Dixon and on entering threw his gun on the negro. This ended the trouble and Dixon submitted meekly to a search.

Three big pistols were found on him and he was taken to the city hall and permitted to make an explanation to the judge.

He kept the stand several minutes and told a varying story. He stated he was really a detective but had been traveling a great deal. While his home was in Mound City, he liked Georgia and the south and was en route to New York on professional business when arrested. He said he made a habit of carrying several pistols when traveling.

Dixon swore that he did not have the guns concealed and swore other things just as false in comparison with the testimony of the detective. He had papers in his coat giving him "detective powers." They were from a bogus detective agency in Indianapolis, and Dixon stated he paid three dollars for them some time ago. He declared that he and his newly wedded wife were and had been residing here ever since the marriage.

Three charges were preferred. One for carrying concealed weapons, another for flourishing a pistol and the third for being drunk and disorderly. He did not talk as if he was drunk but smelled suspiciously of liquor. The warrant for drunkenness was filed away and in the first a fine of $75 with 20 days in jail was assessed, and in the second a fine of $50 with 20 days in jail affixed.

Dixon wanted to consult an attorney relative to appealing, but went meekly with the officers to the big jail to begin "doing time."
